Object Donation Proposal

The Fairview Museum of History and Art welcomes the donation of objects that will complement and fulfill our mission. As outlined herein, the museum follows a policy of selective acquisition. Each donation request is thoughtfully considered by the museum board and appropriate governing committees to determine if the gift is in line with the specific criteria for the acceptance and acquisition of donations. Any object accepted into the museum's collection should be consistent with the institution's mission and in acceptable condition for display without special preservation requirements. Only inquiries that are of specific interest and in line with these criteria will be considered.

The museum may acquire objects through gift, donation, and bequest, as well as other lawful means. The museum's intent is to hold the objects permanently or for as long as the objects retain physical integrity and usefulness in fulfilling the museum's mission. The museum cannot guarantee that items will remain on display or be stored intact as a single collection. If the objects are later deemed unusable by the museum, they may be de-accessed as the museum sees fit.

Items must have clear title and be free of copyright restrictions. All donations to the museum's collections are irrevocable upon the formal and physical transfer to the museum.

Any appraisals of donated items for tax or other purposes are the sole responsibility of the donor.

If you are interested in making the gift of an object to the Fairview Museum of History and Art, please fill out this form and return it to the museum. If possible, please include a photograph of the item(s) to be donated.

I understand and agree to the above conditions.
