Pioneer Day Extravaganza!

Pioneer Day is a major community event in Fairview, and the main hub of activity is the Fairview Museum! We had an amazing time at the museum, beginning with Lace Days and the Beauty & Heritage Artwalk.

On July 23rd, hundreds of visitors toured the museum buildings. Outside on the museum campus a massive crowd came for the classic car show, the artisan fair, the climbing wall, and the auction.

It was our best Pioneer Day celebration ever at the Fairview Museum, and we look forward to an even bigger and better activity in 2023!

Over 90 cars were displayed at the Classic Car Show.

New for 2022, the Artisan Fair was a big hit.

Fall Pottery Classes

A number of fun pottery classes for children and adults are being offered at the museum this fall, in partnership with Muddy Pants Pottery. Come learn how to make adorable garden gnomes and mushrooms, holiday plates and bowls, Halloween baskets, luminaries, and more!

Allen Nelson Honored

Museum administrator and longtime associate Allen Nelson has unfortunately had to resign from his position due to health concerns.

Allen was honored at the August museum board meeting with a special plaque for his dedicated service. Allen has gone far beyond the call of duty in fulfilling his many responsibilities at the museum. He will be deeply missed.

We are pleased to welcome Terry Curtis as our new museum administrator. Terry, you have big shoes to fill! We look forward to your service!

Artwalk Thanks

We extend our sincere thanks to the many artists and photographers who displayed their works at the annual Utah's Beauty and Heritage Artwalk! There were so many amazing pieces it was very hard for the judges to decide the winners. We would also like to thank those who participated in the program and ribbon cutting, as well as the museum staff members who worked so hard to make this program a success.
